PREFACE

This compilation is intended as a guide to non-fiction books which relate to the history, people and events of Tennessee. The purpose has been to provide the historian, librarian and collector with a comprehensive listing of books. This guide does not include broadsides, newspapers, imprints (as such), magazines or periodicals. Those books listed primarily relate to the stated subject matter. It should be noted that some titles no doubt have been omitted, not intentionally but simply due to the fact that for some reason these were not located.

Primary sources used in the preparation of this work have included the following:

Alderson, William T. and Robert H. White. A GUIDE TO THE STUDY AND READING OF TENNESSEE HISTORY. Nashville. 1959.

A BIBLIOGRAPHY FOR THE T.V.A. PROGRAM. Knoxville. 1968.

Containing a Short Biography of the Author.

"How can I sleep when I hear a child in a cave?
This shadowy forest, with scattered woods,
I better love than flourishing peopled towns;
Here can I sit alone, unseen of any,
And to the stationary woods, complaining notes
Tune my distresses and record my woes."
